

Our Goals

- Deliver whole person, integrated care customized to the individual's needs.
- Assure timely access to high quality behavioral health services.
- Offer high quality care to all individuals and family we serve.

Contact Information

By Phone
(360) 261-6930

By Fax
(360) 748-4480 / (844) 554-3370

Office Locations

Cowlitz County
1116 14th Ave, Longview, WA 98632

Lewis County
1707 Cooks Hill Rd, Centralia, WA 98531

www.cihealthservices.com

COMMUNITY INTEGRATED
Health Services

COMMUNITY INTEGRATED
Health Services

Youth Services

Get The Facts

Where are Youth Services Provided?

- Schools
- Home/Community
- Office
- Telehealth

Who Can Refer?

- Parents / Guardians
- School staff
- Caregivers
- Community Partners
- Youth

Who is Eligible?

Individuals who voluntarily agree to services and who receive Medicaid insurance benefits for behavioral health services.

Youth Program What is it?

Youth behavioral health services are a team delivered service provided by Mental Health Professionals (MHPs) and Case Managers, with access to peers, and medication prescribers if indicated. Mental Health Professionals and Case Managers work together to provide a variety of customized counseling techniques, care coordination, and skill building to each individual

Your Role

- Be committed
- Be prepared
- Be connected
- Be heard
- Be strengths based
- Be a team player
- Be creative

Services

Please visit: cihealthservices.com for more information and details related to the full range of CIHS service continuums.